Manager's Desk

It is a privilege to introduce the third edition of our college newsletter, which stands as a testament to the dedication, accomplishments, and collective efforts of our institution. This publication not only highlights the unwavering commitment of our faculty and students but also serves as a reflection of our academic progress and excellence.

I sincerely appreciate Prof. Devendra Kumar Singh for his invaluable support in making this newsletter a reality. His guidance and steadfast dedication have played a crucial role in its success. May this platform continue to inspire and foster unity within our academic community, paving the way for even greater accomplishments ahead.

Warm Regards, Manager

Principal's Desk

I am delighted to present the third edition of our college newsletter. As Principal, I am dedicated to ensuring that every student, regardless of their abilities, receives the necessary support and opportunities to excel. Our academic programs will continue to adapt to the evolving needs of our students, fostering their growth and success.

I encourage you to explore this edition and gain deeper insights into our vibrant college community. Each milestone highlighted here reflects our collective commitment to knowledge, innovation, and holistic development. The relentless pursuit of excellence by our faculty, staff, and students remains the driving force behind our continued progress.

With Best Regards, Principal

Dear Readers,

College life is a journey of learning, skill enhancement, and value-building, shaping individuals to contribute positively to society. With numerous developments unfolding, the need to document our transformation from a teaching-learning center to an inspiring hub was strongly felt. This vision, initiated by our Principal, Prof. Devendra Kumar Singh, led to the creation of our newsletter, National College Beyond Boundaries, published four times a year. It highlights the achievements of students and faculty, celebrating their efforts. I extend my sincere gratitude to our esteemed Manager Sir, Principal Sir, editors, colleagues, staff, and students for their unwavering support. Your valuable suggestions are always welcome.

Happy reading!

Warm regards, Chief Editor
